RE: HB 128

Dear Distinguished Members:

The BOPP deals with the lives of thousands of inmates annually, and thousands more in the form of their families and loved ones; therefore it is imperative that they be subject to the same administrative rule procedure as all other entities. Because of the manner in which their decisions impact the lives of the inmates, their families and the taxpayers, it is unthinkable that they would be exempt from the process of public comment.

I urge you to restore honor to the system in supporting this most important bill, in the interest of justice.

Thank you for your time.

Respectfully.
